ਜਪੁ ਸਾਹਿਬ
Jap Sahib

Part 1: Gurmukhi with Translitteration & Synopsis of Seven different English Translations with Colour-Coded Dictionary

Introduction
Translations
Literature

Introduction

Duality, Polarity and the Thin Path in-between

In this one chapter of Jap Ji, the sage of discord - the polarised experience of the human being in duality: Mental activity dominates self perception, and duality is the very nature of the human mind. We are constantly confronted with opposites: pain and pleasure, love and lust, attraction and repulsion, positive and negative mind. The neutral mind, intuition, the voice of the heart, which can transcend the dualistic perception of reality, is rarely heard. Guru Nanak, founder of the fifth and Guidance of Divine Essence (the Hukam), we were developed and used.

The teachings for full yogi often give pairs of balancing polarities which help to transcend duality through mental paradox and contradiction. Guru Nanak uses the pairs of truth and falsehood, essence and primitivity, Name - Dark Ages (Kaliyug) and inner purification and reconstruction through the Divine word), Sinai (Commandments),